ABOUT ME

I always loved geography and things connected with it. That is why I am studying Geoinformatics at Palacký University. Not only it teaches me how to properly make maps, but also other useful subjects such as remote sensing, GIS analysis and 3D modeling. In my free time, I absolutely adore sports. Football and bike is my main passion. Also, travelling specifilally on my own is what I really enjoy. I love to explore new places, learn new things and meet new people.
